

GOODBYE

Into every ocean, I'll drown my emotions
Like a flicker, my love is an ember
And like Judas, you taught me betrayal
By that river, I'll kiss you goodbye

When the sun shines, you bribe my thoughts with a dime
When the sun fades, every thought is stil as a lake
Winow these empty thoughts from my brain
And let this brain gain some space

How pleasing it is to have a broken heart
For indeed I can think like a man
Love that lead me through cunny paths
Goodbye I've seen the endless track

Another chance is what you seek
So you can clean up your deeds
But when given, all you do is trow me into the deep Yes! what you want you always get

Wait a minute; what can I do?
All I can do is kiss you goodbye
In fact a kiss is not worth it, since you bite my lips and spill
my blood
Goodbye is all I can say.
